

Definitions of Levels of Classism

Individual Classism: This term refers to classism on a personal or individual level, either in behavior or attitudes, either conscious and intentional or unconscious and unintentional.

Institutional Classism: This term refers to the ways in which intentional and unintentional classism is manifest in the various institutions of our society.

Cultural Classism: This term refers to the ways in which classism is manifest through our cultural norms and practices. It can often be found in the ideology behind something.